VMMS students paint shoes to send to Uganda, Africa

VISTA, Calif. – On Friday, April 19, 2008 students will be painting shoes and shipped internationally to other children in need. We are collaborating with the Art Miles Mural Project's Shoes of Hope, <http://www.the-art-miles-mural-project.org/>

The activity will begin at 2:17pm and end approximately at 3:33pm.

The activity will entail all 200 6th grade students to paint donated white canvas shoes with inspirational and motivational messages for children Uganda, Africa. This activity will end our 1st Annual Global Awareness which included:

Monday, April 14 – International Dress Day, Reading a German fairy tale by a citizen of Germany

Tuesday, April 15 – Writing facts about countries with chalk in Palm Court/cafeteria

Wednesday, April 16 – Presentation by our very own nurse travels to Ghana, Africa

Thursday, April 17 – Letters written to children in Uganda, Africa

Friday, April 18 – Paint white canvas shoes to be donated to children in Uganda, Africa

As a International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme Candidate School, we continue to celebrate the various international cultures that shape our world. We hope to see you witness our students in action!
